NOTES

Village – The word village by and large synonymous with revenue estate. Through word ‘village’ use in singular it will also mean ‘villages’ when read in relevant context. An area recorded as revenue estate in revenue records of a district can only be called village. Area not recorded as revenue estate cannot be called a village and cannot be independently declared as a Sabha area. Local area not recorded as a revenue estate, does not fall within definition of village.
Public Street – Pathway is included in term ‘Public Street’ – Gram Panchayat has jurisdiction to order removal of encroachment from such public street. So long as public has a right to use the Blind alley, the same is covered by definition of “public street”.

Distinction Between Common Land and Public Place. – The expression common land refers to every kind of land reserved for common purposes of village community or acquired for such purposes but not in the exclusive possession of any particular individual. In order that a place falling within the definition of expression common land may be covered by covered by the definition of public place the additional requisite of its so falling within the scope of the latter as to the public in general having free access to it has to be satisfied. Public place may be covered by the definition of common land but every piece of common land is not a public place. It is only in respect of those places of land, which not only satisfy the test of sine qua non of the definition of the public place of free access to such land by public in general that the place could be covered by the definition of public place. Unless it is shown on behalf of the Gram Panchayat that the site in dispute is a public place, the Gram Panchayat has no jurisdiction to proceed against a person on the ground of the site in dispute being the public place. In other words, existence of public place is a condition precedent for exercise of jurisdiction by the Gram Panchayat.

CHAPTER – II

   (4) Gram Panchayat reconstituted upon the dissolution of the existing Gram Panchayat before the expiration or its duration, shall continue only for the remainder of the period for which the dissolved Gram Panchayat would have continued under section 15 had it not been so dissolved.

Reservation for Scheduled Caste – One seat was reserved for Scheduled Castes, but no Scheduled Caste was living in the village, this does not vitiate the entire election. The reserves could be filled from general category.

Technical Breach of Election Rules – The election of Panches and Sarpanches cannot be set aside by the High Court in exercise of its power under Article 226 of the constitution of India, there nothing more than a technical breach of an election rule has occurred and no real prejudice has been proved to have been caused to the petitioner.

Election not to be Set Aside on Mere Technicalities – An election is a time consuming process involving a lot of expense. If it is established that the voters have been able to make their choice in a free manner, the elections should not be set aside on mere technicalities. A Court of Law charged with the duty of determining the validity of an election must lean in favour of the Will of the people. This principal is firmly established in our system of law relating to election. Section 100 of the Representation of People Act, 1951, also provides that the election of returned candidate can be declared void on account of any non-compliance with the provisions of the Constitution or of the Act or the rules framed thereunder only if such non-compliance with the statutory provisions has materially affected the result of the election.

Election Petition – Maintainability. – The Plea on basis of which the election is to be satisfied should be precise and exact. In case of vague plea the election petition is to be rejected outright. In case one plea fails the election petition can be allowed on the basis of the other plea.

Single Election Petition for both Sarpanch and Panch. – The Challenge to election of Sarpanch on the ground that a particular Panch was not duly elected and therefore net entitled to participate in election of Sarpanch depends on determination whether that Panch was duly elected or not. Two causes of action being so inextricably mixed up and inter-related that they must be treated as forming one composite cause of action. Single election petition both against Sarpanch and Panch is competent.

Restoration of election petition dismissed in default. - Every election petition is to be tried, as nearly as possible in accordance with the procedure applicable under Code of Civil Procedure to the trial suits. In Election petition dismissed in default is to be restore where reasonable cause is soon by the petitioner.

Scheduled Caste candidates not joined in election process-effect. - Where Scheduled Caste candidates or non-Scheduled Caste candidates not allowed to join election process and election held amongst remaining candidates. It is similar position to improper rejection of nomination pagers. Result of election materially affected ipso facto. Fresh poll ordered while accepting election petition.

Meeting-Quorum. – Meetings in absence of quorum are not valid. A meeting conven to consider motion of no confidence against Sarpanch without prescribed quorum is no meeting.
Meeting – Absence of quorum. – A meeting convened to consider motion of no-confidence against Sarpanch. Prescribed quorum not present. No meeting since no quorum. The motion of no-confidence at adjourned meeting cannot be carried by a majority of members present. Statutory requirement that majority of members constituting Gram Panchayat should vote for motion of no-confidence must be satisfied.

Removal of Sarpanch and Panches without notice and enquiry - The power to remove any Panch, is to be exercise “after such enquiry as it may deem fit” and where on the material placed before the High court, the only finding possible was that there had been no enquiry as contemplated by the Statute before the Sarpanch and the Panches were removed, it quashed the orders of removal of the Sarpanch and the Panches.

Removal of Sarpanch - Order should be speaking order. – It was his duty to confine the consideration of the material available against the Sarpanch only to the charges which had been leveled against him and which had been made the subject-matter of the notice. While acting on the report the Deputy Commissioner did not look into it and passed a mechanical order accepting it in toto. Had he perused it, he would have at once seen that it went beyond the scope of the charges and would not have taken into consideration that part of it which was not germane to the enquiry entrusted to the Enquiry Officer. Inasmuch as the order of removal of the Sarpanch is not a “speaking order” and has been passed without giving any real consideration to the charges leveled against the Sarpanch and the findings arrived at thereon by he Enquiry Officer, it is liable to be quashed.

NOTES

Resolute enforcing prohibition-Stray cases not sufficient to form objective opinion. – Keeping in view the importance attached to the enforcement of prohibition by the farmers of the Constitution and accorded the policy of prohibition the status of State policy, the unanimous resolution of the Panchayat could not be ignored unless a clear case on the basis of sufficient material had been carried out to show that illicit distillation and smuggling of alcohol had been made on or connived at in the local area. It the importance of the public policy enshrined in the Constitutional provision which the Panchayat sought to carry out had been kept in mind by the Excise and taxation commissioner, then on the basis of two stray cases of detection of possession of very insignificant quantity of illicit liquor having come to his notice about which no details were indicated as to whether the cases had succeeded or not, he could not have objectively formed the opinion and decided to ignore the resolution of the Panchayat.

Illicit distillation – When ignored. – Even though a large number of cases of illicit distillation and smuggling might take place during the interval when resolution passed by Gram Panchayat and time form which it takes effect i.e. 1st of April of next Year. Commissioner cannot take them into consideration.

NOTES

Removal from Service is not a Disqualification. – The disqualification to stand for election has to be specific and has also to be notified to make the disablement of a candidate effective. The order of removal from service as a watchman per se cannot be regarded as automatic order of disqualification. The Termination of the service of a temporary police constable on account of inefficiency does not entail disqualification from contesting an election of a Sarpanch of a Gram Panchayat.

Criminal Offence and disqualification. – In case of Convection by Criminal Court the essential requirement is forming the opinion regarding order of Criminal Court. Section 12 of Probation of offenders Act fully applies to remove the bar or the disqualification where the convection is followed by punishment of being bound down to keep the peace and be of good behaviour under Section 4 of the said Act.

Person in possession of Panchayat Land without payment of rent – whether disqualification. – A person in possession of the land of he Panchayat without any rent is not a tenant or lessee under the Panchayat Act is not disqualified from contesting election as Panch or Sarpanch. A person who occupies land vesting in Gram Panchayat in his capacity other than a lessee or tenant is not disqualified for seeking election to the Gram Panchayat.

Lessee holding tenancy or lease without possession. – Where a Gram Panchayat has passed a resolution granting lease of land to a candidate, who paid two instalments of the lease money but had not taken possession of the land. He intended not to enforce the lease if he had actually succeeded in the election as Panch and would have taken over the lands as a lessee only if he had failed to get elected. Held that, the candidate had become a lessee under the Gram Panchayat Act and was disqualified from contesting the election.
